Sub: Procedure for selection of beneficiaries for allotment of I.A.Y. houses where the 5-years Permanent Wait List has been exhausted.

Sir/Madam

I am directed to invite reference to the above cited subject and to say that where 5-years Permanent I.A.Y. Wait List has been exhausted (either in toto or in respect of certain categories of beneficiaries), selection of IAY beneficiary shall be made by the Pallasabha as per the following procedure.

1. Names of those BPL families/persons which are not included in the 5-years Wait List, shall be read out and the most deserving ones of appropriate category shall be identified as IAY beneficiaries by the Pallasabha.
2. The eligibility of such identified beneficiaries (identified by Pallasabha) shall be inquired into by the BDO within a fortnight and work orders shall be issued to eligible beneficiaries.
3. Distribution of target category wise shall be calculated at G.P. level and in case of non-availability of adequate beneficiaries of reserved category, the unfilled target shall be filled up by selecting beneficiaries of unreserved category of the same G.P.
4. The earlier instruction issued vide this Department letter No.8783/P.R.dtd.30.10.2004 is hereby withdrawn.

Yours faithfully,
